Airstream Memories

John Brunkowski, Michael Closen : Airstream Memories before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Airstream Memories:

A must have for any Airstream fan.3 of 5 people found the following review helpful. Very good bookBy John or Rita GreenWe've been Airstream owners for over 20 years. This book contains information that was not in the other Airstream history books we have. There is one minor error in the book on page 81. The WBCCI 2004 International Rally was held in Lansing, MI and the automobile on the bolo tie is an Oldsmobile that was actually assembled in Lansing. The caption mistakenly identifies the automobile as a Ford because of "nearby Detroit." Fords were actually made in Dearborn, MI. Better research by the author would have avoided the error.0 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Five StarsBy mariannelove the book

The legendary Airstream travel trailer, with its unmistakable shiny aluminum airplane fuselage design, has been the world's most recognized RV for over 80 years also making Airstream the oldest and longest operating producer of RVs. This book is the first-ever to tell the remarkable Airstream success story through the unique medium of collectibles and memorabilia. The book contains some 370 pictures (both color and black-and-white) of more than 425 separate pieces of Airstream memorabilia from the authors' collection, including an amazing group of 285 postcards. Many items shown are quite scarce, and some are truly rare. The book begins with a foreword by Rich Luhr, the Editor and Publisher of Airstream Life magazine. Topics covered include Airstream history, advertising, rallies, international connections, look-a-likes, art, and humor. The unique approach taken here makes this book both an invaluable stand alone resource for information and a source of good old-fashioned entertainment. This book is also a price guide that provides an estimated value for every piece of memorabilia displayed.

About the Author John Brunkowski and Michael Closen have been RVers for over 25 years, are owners of a vintage Airstream Safari trailer, members of several RV organizations, have written several RVing articles, and have authored two previous RV books.
