Good price for a basic albumBy Kindle CustomerI was looking for a good deal on the current America the Beautiful quarters collection, since I didn't start collecting them until halfway through the series, and this seemed like a good folder for them. I was really happy with the size of the folder, it's the size of a normal book basically, whereas my coin folder from the first state quarters set was huge and hard to store. I also really love that it has spots for P D quarters, so it's easy to see what I need to fill in the collection.As far as the hole size for the quarters, it is tight, but if you push on them firmly you can get them in, so it is functional, just tight. For the price, I think this is a good album for the set.1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. This is much better than what I have for the state quarters series ...By MannyThe book has positions for both P and D mint marks. A separate list is included giving the name of the national park for each state. Spaces for the entire series through 2021 are included. A description of the design process is also present. This is much better than what I have for the state quarters series from a different publisher. This book is a keeper.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful.

Besides the very bad misprint (years duplicated 2x)By Kenneth S. LambertBesides the very bad misprint (years duplicated 2x)... nothing a pen can't fix... would have been a 5 star.Probably adds to the value :) Still using it to this day. In the future, prob 5*. Pen prob doesn't help. Whatever... collecting coins. Recommended. If you get the same misprint - you can prob return - I just kept it. It has CO and PA inserts. So if you travel - try to get change.

Beginning in 2010, the United States Mint will issue newly designed quarters featuring a national park or other site approximately every ten weeksand this compact folder is the perfect place for collectors to store each new coin. Complete with historical information and details of the Congressional Act that initiated this special program, the folder will keep this commemorative series organized, accessible, and easy to show off.The noteworthy sites will come from all 50 states, as well as Washington, D.C., and five U.S. territories: Puerto Rico, Guam, American Samoa, the U.S. Virgin Islands, and the Northern Mariana Islands.
