Sandra Rambo Walker : Country Cloth to Coverlets: Textile Traditions in Nineteenth Century Central Pennsylvania (A Keystone Book) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Country Cloth to Coverlets: Textile Traditions in Nineteenth Century Central Pennsylvania (A Keystone Book):

Feedbags to Finery chronicles weaving traditions in eight Cantral Pennsylvania counties during the nineteenth century. More than 2000 weavers are documented and their locations listed in the Union, Snyder, Clinton, Centre, Lycoming, Montour, Columbia, and Northumberland county area. Includes both biographical material on the weavers and an examination of their style and type of weaving. Will appeal to weavers, collectors, and historians because of the significant impact of Pennsylvania upon the weaving traditions elsewhere. Richly illustrated with 15 color and 43 black and white photographs of textiles, textile tools, maps, and weave shops as well as old ads and other documents.
