If you think tying a knot is a project, then.....By scrapmasterjasonWow, this was the biggest book let down I think I have had.First, 50 creative projects?He counts a knot as a projects. Even the two steps, yes that is right 2 steps, at the beginning of the book where he shows you how to run the paracord through a buckle, that is a project!I am surprised he didn't count opening the book as a project.You can count maybe 35 projects, and 98 percent are wristbands or key chains. 2 of the 3 non bracelet/key projects are on the cover.All bracelet "projects" are just showing you different weaves, not different types of bracelets.The average "project" is about 15 steps.At least the photos were ok.So if you want to make a bunch of bracelets, each a tiny bit different, then this book is for you.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Great for Beginners and Advanced!By Jessica Butler-SquiresI got this for a friend for Christmas. I'm not gonna fib, I totally read this a few times before wrapping it. This is a great book with amazing photos and ideas. Sure you could probably find some of these online. But its great to have a real book to throw in your bag or hiking bag as its not heavy so you can practice on the trail or in your down time. Its very detailed and the projects if gives you are actually useful. I will be purchasing one for myself in the future. Great book for adults who are experienced or for teens or kids looking to learn.2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. good knot descriptionsBy Cheshire CatI got this book so I had a paper copy with descriptive knots and photos of how to. It is exactly that, yes I could get the information online for free, but this is put together nicely and easier for me.

MAKE IT COOL WITH PARACORDIncredibly strong, spectacular in its colors and amazingly versatile, paracord is the ideal material for crafting stylish and functional items. Using easy-to-follow, step-by-step photos, this full-color guide shows how to master dozens of projects, including: Braids for fun bracelets and watchbands Weaves for one-of-a-kind leashes and luggage straps Wraps for tough knife and flashlight handles Knots for decorative lanyards and clasps Bars for handy ropes and keychains
