Book by Varkaris, Jane, Connell, James E.

Early Canadian Timekeepers is essential reading, a comprehensive work for anyone interested in early Canadian clocks and clockmakers. Jane Varkaris and James Connel are two of Canada's foremost horological experts. They take an authoritative look at pre-1900 clocks and the men who made them, either commercially or as one-of-a-kind timepieces. Exceptional clocks are featured in their own essays. Lavishly illustrated with 300 b/w photos, Early Canadian Timekeepers is the most up-to-date, definitive book on early Canadian clocks and clockmakers. -- Midwest Book
