A bountiful feast of the finest examples of Etruscan Majolica illustrated in beautiful full color. The author traveled across the USA to photograph examples of every known pattern made by the Etruscan Works, most shown here for the very first time in any reference book. Divided into categories based on subject this easy to use reference guide will be an indispensable companion to novices, experienced collectors and dealers alike in helping them to identify the work of this beloved American pottery. Included is an extensive, color coded price guide taken from the most recent auction and retail prices to assist the reader in estimating the value of their own collections as well as guidelines to pricing for resale and insurance purposes. Beautifully designed by the award winning author, this companion to Etruscan Majolica, The Majolica of Griffen, Smith Company, Volume One: The History-Volume Two: The Catalog, is indispensable to anyone interested in American Victorian pottery.

About the Author Dimitrios Bastas, has been collecting and selling majolica for over 20 years. A native of Pennsylvania, he is a graduate of Temple University and an award winning magazine designer and illustrator. He lives in the New York metropolitan area.
